

MTSB guidelines of subscription

Please find general information on our website www.mtsb.ch

Our guidelines should help you to find and to explain the appropriate subscription for you. The following paragraphs will tell you everything about the different possibilities and will show you on which courses you can participate.

Test training

Every newcomer at MTSB has the right to attend two test trainings in each course in order to find the appropriate workout for himself (our locations Brügg and Lyss are considered as one unit, means that the courses fit boxing and boxing are non-cumulative).

Example:

2 x fit boxing Lyss, 2 x fit boxing Brügg is not possible

2 x boxing Lyss, 2 x boxing Brügg is not possible

Single entry

As the title implies, this price is for one single training of your choice. Mostly for customers who already know our offers and who want to visit one single training or for people who practice different sports in parallel.

3 months subscription

This subscription allows you to visit all the offered trainings of the course you've chosen, starting with the date of application for 3 months (in Muay Thai, after consultation with the coach regarding strength classification). It should be considered, that both locations Brügg and Lyss cannot be combined in this subscription.

6 months subscription

This subscription allows you to visit all the offered trainings of the course you've chosen, starting with the date of application for 6 months (in Muay Thai, after consultation with the coach regarding strength classification). It should be considered, that both locations Brügg and Lyss cannot be combined in this subscription.

12 months subscription

This subscription allows you to visit all the offered trainings of the course you've chosen, starting with the date of application for 12 months (in Muay Thai, after consultation with the coach regarding strength classification). It should be considered, that both locations Brügg and Lyss cannot be combined in this subscription.

Combo body workout

This subscription allows you to visit all the body workout trainings of MTSB at both locations. That means that you can visit every course at any location during the chosen period (important: consultation with the coach regarding strength classification).

Combo martial arts

This subscription allows you to visit all the body workout trainings of MTSB at both locations. That means that you can visit every course at any location during the chosen period (important: consultation with the coach regarding strength classification).

Combo all access subscription

With this subscription you get the key to all offered courses of MTSB at both locations Brügg and Lyss (important: consultation with the coach regarding strength classification). That means that you can visit every course at any location during the chosen period.

Pass for 10 entries

This is an unbound relationship between the customer and MTSB. You get a discount on the total price for 10 trainings after having taken the two test trainings. This pass is time-independent but expires after 3 years without use. With this pass you can visit all offered courses at both locations Brügg and Lyss.

Courses per location

Location Brügg

Muay Thai
Boxing
Fit Boxing Day
Fit Boxing Night
Body Workout

Location Lyss

Finally, it needs to be mentioned that upon entry, the first subscription or pass for 10 entries will have to be paid cash or with EC / credit card. For the subsequent subscriptions, invoices will be issued.

It is also relevant to note that subscriptions extend automatically if you don't inform us during the current period. The termination of subscription needs to be made in writing.

We don't raise any cancellation period; it is sufficient if you contact us prior to expiration of the current subscription.

In general, our current terms and conditions published on the website of MTSB apply (mtsب.ch).

Thanks for having taken note

Greetings from the MTSB Team
